The Burroughs Clearing House

Detroit Michigan

Volume Five — October, 1920, to September, 1921, inclusive

CONTENTS

	NUMBER	PAGE
A Balance May Not Mean a Profit—by Thomas C. Jefferies	6	3
A Bank-Built Market for Maple Sugar—by James H. Collins	12	8
A Bank that Collects the Gas Bill	4	22
A Bank with a Department of State	2	17
A Daily Bank Letter for Everybody—by D. M. Reynolds	5	14
A Few Tricks of the Forger's Trade—by George H. King	4	5
A Few Ways for Improving Service—by A. Bridges	2	30
A Going Concern—and Still Going—in White Bear	11	10
A Good Check-Sorting Counter	11	8
A Grain Draft Department in Action—by James E. Neville	3	8
A Lesson in Fundamental Typography—by Ralph Parker Anderson	11	12
A "Teaser" Idea in Bank Advertising—by T. D. MacGregor	9	21
A Word for "The Order of Grunts"—by Ira R. Alexander	1	23
Aiding the Bank to Aid the Farmer—by Oswald F. Schuette	1	5
All the World is Our Field of Trade—by Robert J. Thompson	9	9
All Together, Now: What's Your Newspaper For?—by W. E. Walker	11	30
America's Foreign Trade Comes Home—by William M. Jackson	5	3
And Still Doing "Business as Usual"—by T. D. MacGregor	7	18
Another Old Bank with New Methods—by T. D. MacGregor	11	23
Art in Investment Advertising—by Allan Herrick	10	10
Bank and Burglars Under One Roof	3	14
Bank Advertising for These Times—by T. D. MacGregor	6	18
Bank Brains Go to Work on the Soil—by Arthur H. Little	11	5
Banking a la Carte, or What Became of Hootch—by R. E. Dobbs	5	24
Banking as a Career—by Allan F. Wright	9	12
Banking For, By and Of the Women of Hamilton	7	5
Business—By the Light of the Stars—by E. S. Rodman	1	8
"Catching 'Em Young"—and Holding 'Em—by M. E. Chase	4	8
Charting the Rise of the Bank Building	6	5
Competing with the Un-National Bank—by George E. Lees	1	16
Competition—Wise and Otherwise—by Charles A. Faircloth	1	30
Complete Reports on Day of "Call"—by Frank Loomis Beach	7	8
Copy for Art's Sake in Small Towns—by J. L. Karmire	8	8
Credit or Sermons for the Farmer?—by Andrew S. Wing	2	10
Encouraging Use of the Home Budget—by T. D. MacGregor	5	20
Enter, the Agricultural Department—by R. A. Ward	6	15
Every American is Trading Abroad—by Frederick W. Gehle	7	18
Everybody Likes to Look at Pictures—by T. D. MacGregor	12	24
Every-Day Oddities in the Banker's Routine—by Earl Christmas	7	17
Farm Trade Follows the Bank Account—by Charles Moreau Harger	3	15
Featuring the Small Town's Safe Deposit—by P. P. Pullen	12	22
Figures That Talk in These Times—by D. K. Snow	7	3
For Prizes—An Extra Week Vacation—by Elwood Robinson, Jr.	7	20
For Real Opportunity—The Small Town—by W. M. Jackson	3	28
For Workers Among but Not of Us—by W. Burt Millen	9	16

	NUMBER	PAGE
Get Set—A Lesson in Starting—by Walter A. O'Meara	5	8
Giuseppe and the Bank Get Together—by Arthur H. Little	1	13
Go Out to Win—Or Lose With a Smile—by Benjamin E. Cushing	8	12
Grove City Goes "Back to the Land"—by Charles Moreau Harger	5	10
He Who Buys Butter Will Buy Eggs—by D. S. Knowlton	7	13
Helping to "Clear the Map of Lucas County"	6	14
Horse Sense, for Colts—by The Old Stager	8	25
Horse Sense, for Colts—by The Old Stager	9	24
Horse Sense, for Colts—by The Old Stager	10	21
Horse Sense, for Colts—by The Old Stager	11	25
Horse Sense, for Colts—by The Old Stager	12	26
Human Interest Savings Advertising—by T. D. MacGregor	2	15
If It's Good, Put It in the Lobby	2	12
Importance of an Advertising Plan—by T. D. MacGregor	4	20
In Which the Cashier Learns the Law—by Arthur F. McCarty	9	18
In Which the Teller Learns the Law—by Arthur F. McCarty	8	20
Indemnity: What Will the Harvest Be?—by Frank Plachy, Jr.	12	10
Insurance Publicity as an Ally—by T. D. MacGregor	1	18
Introducing the Travel Specialist—by W. Burt Millen	5	15
Iowa Gets the Drop on Bank Robbers—by Donald H. Clark	11	9
Is Saving Classified A "Lost Art?"—by Frederick A. Thulin	1	10
"Issued and Outstanding"—by M. L. Hayward	11	46
It Happened in an "Old Established"—by C. M. Harger	2	18
Just Folks Out There in the Lobby—by D. S. Knowlton	9	13
Kansas City's Biggest Little Place—by F. M. Staker	8	17
Letters that Pulled 380 Accounts—by J. Vincent Corrigan	4	29
Like Home for Thousands of Strangers—by John Anson Ford	12	17
Looking in on the Bank's Birthday—by Robert M. McCabe	4	10
Measuring Credit by Slide-Rule—by Alexander Wall	2	5
Merit Fixed on a Percentage Basis—by Axel Johnson	3	20
Mother Goose Gets Back on the Job—by Walter A. O'Meara	6	8
New Accounts—Effectively Handled—by H. K. Dowling	3	34
Now's the Time to Create Good Will—by T. D. MacGregor	3	18
Of Such is Bank Personality Made—by Carl H. Getz	10	5
Out of the Ether—by Fred Copeland	10	17
Out of the Mid-Western "Blue Sky"—by E. B. Wilson	3	13
Outdoor Advertising for Banks—by John Ring, Jr.	1	5
Places! Curtain!—"Our Birthday"	1	15
Prohibition—A Study of Its Economic Effect—by E. H. Pringle, Jr.	6	22
Puzzle: Find Our Contingent Assets—by Oswald F. Schuette	3	5
Ready—When Those Bank Calls Come—by Frank Loomis Beach	5	6
Research Work for the Big Account—by Frank A. Nagley	8	5
Safekeeping for the Small Investor—by C. M. Nelson	10	15
Safety or Bust!—by Fred Copeland	8	10
Smooth Work!—by Fred Copeland	6	6
So! Here is Glorious Winter!—by Fred Copeland	4	13
So Passes the Artful Counterfeiter—by Oswald F. Schuette	7	6
Some Epigrams of Deposit Building—by Ray E. Bauder	2	22
Speaking Frankly—by D. S. Knowlton	12	13
Taking an Inside Look at Banking—by W. Frank McClure	1	21
Talking to New Orleans in Unison—by Fred W. Ellsworth	5	13
That Thing Called Education—by The Bystander	12	5
The Account-a-Week Club's Millions—by Harry Edwin Martin	11	11
That Bank as a School for Bankers—by P. E. Hathaway	5	17
The Bank at the Workingman's Elbow—by I. I. Sperling	4	15

	NUMBER	PAGE
The Bank Idea Behind School Posters—by R. J. Campbell	11	18
The Bank in the World's Trade Today—by Frank Plachy, Jr.	10	5
The Bank that Goes "House to House"—by Earl R. Obern	3	22
The Bank that Has Friends—The Run that Failed	11	19
The Bank with a Sales Force of 950—by I. I. Sperling	8	23
The Banker—Always a Psychologist—by Claude D. Minor	7	28
The Books that Bankers Should Have—by Elmer H. Youngman	10	12
The Compound Interest Column—by Don Knowlton	10	29
The Compound Interest Column—by Don Knowlton	8	31
The Danger Line in Live Stock Loans—by Tom Delohery	10	19
The Facts in the Case—and the Law—by Arthur F. McCarty	11	20
The Farm Loan Comes Into Its Own—by Allan Herrick	7	15
The Friendly Note In An Ohio Bank	3	36
The Interest Column—by Don Knowlton	9	35
The Interest Column—by Don Knowlton	11	40
The Library Promotes the Bank Idea	7	17
The Modern Bank's Appeal to Farmers—by T. D. MacGregor	10	22
The School Principal a Banker Too—by Earl Christmas	8	15
The Thrift Idea and Life Insurance—by T. D. MacGregor	8	18
The Why of the Farmer Co-operatives—by Andrew S. Wing	12	18
Three First Aids to Country Bankers—by E. B. Wilson	2	8
Too Much Blind Firing Into the Air—by Raymond I. Tennant	12	15
Trailing Maine Fairs With the Bank	6	20
Try Individuality in Your Advertising—by W. W. Douglas	9	11
Two Shares Short—by Fred Copeland	11	16
Usury Laws in Bank Practice—by M. L. Hayward	10	30
What Does It Cost to Run a Bank?—by Frank Loomis Beach	9	5
What the Advertising Services Can Do for You—by James E. Morton	10	44
When Business Backed Rural Credit—byAndrew S. Wing	4	17
When Country Banks Saved the Day—by Earl Christmas	6	15
When In Doubt, Try the Referendum—by Augustus Paul Cooke	3	9
When Required to Notify a Deceased Indorser—by M. L. Hayward	5	9
When the Cashier Goes Bad—by M. L. Hayward	8	40
When the Farmer Borrows in Burton—by Tom Delohery	12	21
Where Workers Cash In on Accuracy—by Harry Edwin Martin	2	19
Who Passes Your Window Display?—by Allan Herrick	8	27
Why Do New Accounts Come to You?—by Ralph P. Anderson	3	10
Your Telephone—Asset or Liability—by W. M. Jackson	4	24
"Yes" or "No" Paper for Re-discount—by Irwin R. Harris	6	10